I Saw Something Beautiful

Anon

I saw something beautiful today.
I was sitting by a tree
along a wooded path, when I heard two lovers talk as they came near me
along the wooded path.
She said she hoped he'd never go until she'd passed away for she was to weak to go alone and he said that he'd not go until her life was gone because she was his morning and she was his sun.
That she'd never face a day alone.
What love this couple has I thought As these endearing words I caught.
I envisioned them as lovers in a fairy tale,
Him tall and dark, her small and pale.
So when they chanced to pass my way
I looked to see such young lovers.
But this is what I saw,
an elderly man with eyes now dim an elderly lady accompanying him.
This is what I saw,
The beauty of an ageless love
Blessed by Goddess above Endless even in old age.
And somehow I knew there was no gage
By which to measure this My wish for them is one of eternal bliss.
Yes, I saw something beautiful today
And I'm better for it crossing my way.
